

I think New Jersey's consumer protection laws should not be weakened. I myself get bombarded with sales & marketing calls every evening while cooking dinner and spending time with my family. These people will not take no for an answer and they will constantly harras you.

Please keep it as is.

Thanks